

U.S. Embassy Kyiv, Ukraine
Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Protest Related Violence Escalating
January 22, 2014

U.S. Citizens should continue to avoid areas in Kyiv or in other cities where there are demonstrations or a large police presence. Protest-related violence in Kyiv has escalated sharply with several deaths and hundreds of injuries. Protesters continue to occupy Kyiv's Independence square and adjacent buildings. Outside of protest areas, people should exercise caution and avoid large groups of young men, popularly called "Titushki," who have reportedly attacked journalists and people en-route to protests.

Further clashes between police and protesters are possible. The situation is fluid. The location and nature of demonstrations and the methods employed by the police may change quickly and without warning. Protest and pro-government groups typically hold larger rallies on weekends. Demonstrations are also occurring in other cities throughout Ukraine.

Protesters have blocked roads and may do so again. Citizens whose residences or hotels are located in areas with gatherings of protestors and police should leave the area or plan for the possibility they might have to remain inside should clashes occur. U.S. citizens should monitor media coverage and stay aware of the ongoing situation.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Ukraine enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) at www.Travel.State.Gov. STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website, where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution. Read the Country Specific Information for Ukraine. For additional information, refer to "A Safe Trip Abroad" on the State Department's website.

Contact the U.S. Embassy for up-to-date information on travel restrictions. You can also call 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or 1-202-501-4444 from other countries. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays). Follow us on Twitter and Facebook, and download our free Smart Traveler App, available through the iTunes store and Google Play store, to have travel information at your fingertips.
